- This table shows the money you could get back over the next 1 year and 7 months, under different scenarios, assuming that you invest USD 10,000.
- The scenarios shown illustrate how your investment could perform. You can compare them with the scenarios of other products.
- The scenarios presented are an estimate of future performance based on evidence from the past, and are not an exact indicator. What you get will vary depending on how the market performs and how long you keep the investment/product.
- The stress scenario shows what you might get back in extreme market circumstances, and it does not take into account the situation where we are not able to pay you.
- The figures shown include all the costs of the product itself, but may not include all the costs that you pay to your advisor or distributor. The figures do not take into account your personal tax situation, which may also affect how much you get back.

What happens if the issuer is unable to pay out?

In the event of Mediobanca becoming insolvent or subject to bankruptcy procedures or compositions with creditors, the investor could lose their entire capital invested. The Securities are not covered by the Deposit Guarantee Fund. You should also be aware that Mediobanca is a credit institution and that therefore it is subject to the resolution regime introduced by the EU Directive establishing a framework for the recovery and resolution of banking crises of 15 May 2014 (Directive 2014/59/EU). Among the instruments for intervention available to the national authorities, the Directives include the possibility of "bail-in", which is the power to devalue securities, including the possibility of reducing their nominal value to zero, and of converting them to equities. Hence if the bail-in were to be applied, investors would be exposed to the risk of their investment being devalued, its value reduced to zero, or being converted permanently to equities, even without a formal declaration of insolvency on the part of the Issuer

What are the costs?

Cost over time

The Reduction in Yield (RIY) shows what impact the total costs you pay will have on the investment return you might get. The total costs take into account one-off, ongoing and incidental costs. The amounts shown here are the cumulative costs of the product itself, for 2 different holding periods. They include potential early exit penalties. The figures assume you invest USD 10,000. The figures are estimates and may change in the future.

The person selling you or advising you about this product may charge you other costs. If so, this person will provide you with information about these costs, and show you the impact that all costs will have on your investment over time.

Investment $ 10,000 Scenarios	If you cash in after 1 year	(Recommended Holding Period)
Total costs	$ 102.31	$ 50.79
Impact on return (RIY) per year	1.03%	0.34%

Composition of costs

The table below shows:

- The impact each year of the different types of costs on the investment return you might get at the end of the recommended holding period.
- What the different cost categories mean.

This table shows the impact on return per year
One-off costs	Entry costs	0.34% The impact of the costs already included in the price.
	Exit costs	0.00% The impact of the costs of exiting your investment.
Ongoing costs	Portfolio transaction costs	0.00% The impact of the costs of us buying and selling underlying investments for the product.
	Other ongoing costs	0.00% The impact of the costs that we take each year for managing your investments.

How long should I hold it and can I take money out early?

Recommended holding period: Maturity Date, 09/06/2021

The recommended holding period coincides with the Maturity Date. In normal market conditions, you could sell this product on the secondary market, at a price which depends on the parameters prevailing on the markets at the time and which could be lower than the capital invested. Mediobanca does not charge penalties in the event of divestment before expiry. If you decide to sell the product, a commission of 1.00% would be charged to the sale price which could increase in particular market conditions.
